PHILOSOPHICAL PONDERINGS

Isn't it so cool how many banger quotes Pokemon has? Like all the games just inspire you so much with good messages. I also recently just watched this YouTube video about how Beyblade was not only a great story but taught kids real dedication and perseverance. And I'm not even mentioning the goat Avatar the Last Airbender! All this to say, nowadays media geared towards kids is very chaotic and meant to capture attention, not build character. It is also very sexualized at times, which is just leading to kids becoming younger and younger talking about having friends with benefits and situationships. It's no doubt contributing to kids not being as well-adjusted and social.

Change your perspective—
and the reality changes.

SHI THAT HAPPENED

Good

- My brother came into town and we got to explore museums!!
- India Club friends came into town and we got to explore monuments!!
- AI Contract Job is going well and I also started tutoring CS on the side which is lowkey making more money than the AI so I might quit it and focus on tutoring

Bad

- Paid $35 for a haircut and it was a pretty bad cut too, thank god I wear a scooter helmet everywhere anyways
- Doing two fantasy football leagues this year and it is already overwhelming to manage multiple rosters, and the season hasn't even started yet
- "Sun is down, freezin' cold, That's how we already know, winter's here" - Gandhi

NIGHTMARE OF THE WEEK

On the way back from DC to ATL, my brother stopped by at his girlfriends' cousin's baby shower as her +1. I was legitimately stressing for him because he did not bring nice clothes and if there's one thing I know from my old roomies and my ex, ppl take dress codes at these South Indian events seriously. It's kind of a big step for him to just meet her entire family solo after an 8 hour drive with no break, but it sounds like he made a good impression so I am happy for him and proud of him.
