MUSIC RECOMMENDATIONS

im kinda out of philosophical shit to write about ngl, there's only so much to profoundly think about. So, I'm taking a page from most of y'all's newsletters and will be recommending some music I've enjoyed recently:

- Sarang Hae Yo - Kim Hyung Sup
 - One of my all-time favorite slow Hindi songs, Pehli Nazar Mein, blatantly plagiarized this Korean song entirely
 - Also the namesake of my DnD character
- What I Want - Morgan Wallen
 - Tate McRae is my favorite of all the current white girl pop singers, she has such a distinct voice that pairs rly well with my 2nd fav country boy
- Ma Meilleure Ennemie - Stromae&Pomme
 - I've been saying for YEARS, League of Legends KNOWS how to make music. Such great vibes for a language idek.

SHI THAT HAPPENED

Good

- Registered for my first work trip! I'm going to Orlando for 2 weeks of training and then New Jersey for a project!
- Went to a Baseball Game with Omkar's friends who are super chill
- Won in both of my fantasy leagues!!!
- Got coffee with this girl one of my family friends intro'd me to who is pretty cute and started texting her and I'm getting drinks with her tonight, stay tuned to see how I fumble this one...

Bad

- Invited my GT friends to my place to make them my world-famous Eggplant Parm that you all know well, but one of them flaked last min so now I'm on day 4 of eating Eggplant Parm for dinner

NIGHTMARE OF THE WEEK

Honestly a pretty good week. No nightmares and lowkey a lot of pretty good and encouraging occurrences.

Sometimes in life I feel like I seek out a nightmare to justify to myself that I deserve to let loose and have fun.

But this week I just had fun anyways!
