A BREAK

PwC “forces” all employees to take a week off of work from June 29th to July 5th as part of a firm-wide shutdown. All clients are told this is “non-negotiable” (ofc some people will still work but not me!).

I honestly don’t really need this break right now. Things are going pretty well, and I have a decent bit of stamina. I wish I could just save this week break for a rainy day, but sadly that’s not how this works.

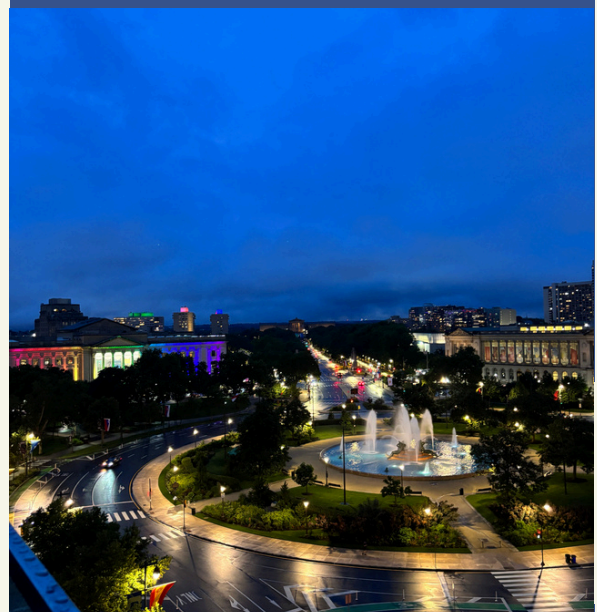

Anyways I haven’t picked up my Nintendo Switch in probably 8 months, so I’ll do that this break I think. Maybe I’ll run back Pokemon Diamond for the fun of it or something. Or maybe I’ll lock in on working out. Or maybe I’ll just scroll on Reels every day for 5 hours and rot my brain away. So many choices!

Kunj, you are really a thusty ass Mf. You just mad higgitt ngl.

SHI THAT HAPPENED

- Apparently I died ?
- Philly work trip was pretty good trip cuz good dinner and no hookah bar
- Had final review for a work deliverable that I pretty much did all myself and it went well! I’m finally probably maybe done with this same client I’ve been working for since I started in October!
- Got to see Ananya TWICE last week!

APPRECIATIVE APPRECIATIONS

Thank you all for being such good friends.

Living here in DC has no doubt given me a lot of solo time to reflect on my life in Georgia, and while I really miss some aspects, I feel like the transition was so much easier because we stayed in touch rly well, be it games or book club or DnD or newsletters or just random text conversations about caffeine.

This is the part where I must inform you all that I will be in ATL for like two days but we have family in town so I won’t get a chance to see y’all. Tough money, still miss y’all.
